

Digital Media & Communications

Television & Radio Broadcasting at Watertown High School

Program Update presented to the School Committee (January 5, 2015)

COURSES

The course selections for the Digital Media & Communications curriculum currently include:

- ❖ Television and News Production
(1 section)
- ❖ Multi-Cam Studio Production
(2 sections)
- ❖ Documentary Video
(1 section)
- ❖ Introduction to Radio Broadcasting
(1 section)

EMPOWER

All aspects of the Digital Media & Communications curriculum have been designed to allow for an emphasis to be placed on student-centered learning:

- ❖ Teacher as Coach
- ❖ Content
- ❖ Format
- ❖ Production

PAPERLESS

<http://www.mrrobinsdmc.com>

<http://classroom.google.com>

<http://www.remind.com>

<http://www.engage.com>

GOALS

- ❖ Sequence / Tiered Curriculum
 - ◆ 3-5 year goal
 - ◆ Allow for most meaningful/impactful progression of students' Digital Media & Communications education.
- ❖ Awards Competitions
 - ◆ Immediate goal
 - ◆ Allow students to compete in regional competitions to showcase their work.
- ❖ Internship/Career Exploration
 - ◆ 1-3 year goal
 - ◆ Provide students real-world experience in the field.
- ❖ Community Involvement
 - ◆ 1-3 year goal
 - ◆ Continued expansion of programming and opportunity.

For broadcast times please visit: <http://www.wcatv.org>

For video On Demand please visit: <http://wcatv.org/wcac-for-whs-students/>