

Ideas:

- Bullying
- Discrimination based on sexual orientation XXX

Line 1: "Ew you're straight? Why are you like that?"

Line2: "What's wrong with you? Boys and girls aren't supposed to be together?"

Line3: "Get away from me you freak."

Line4: "Maybe you're just going through a faze, you'll get through it."

(Secondary voice in a harsh tone)

Line4: How would you feel if people told you being straight was wrong? How would you feel if you couldn't love who you wanted to? 20-25% of Lesbian and Gay people experience hate crimes throughout their lifetime, and that's only the very few who have spoken out. People part of the LGBTQ community are raped & killed everyday due to their sexual orientation. Don't be the person who makes someone feel unwanted. Make your town a safe space. Let people love who they love. Don't discriminate, we are all HUMAN BEINGS. Don't be the instigator, BE the change.

If you've ever faced discrimination or you want to know more about how you can help visit GLAD the legal advocates for the LGBTQ Community online at GLAD.ORG

Bullying:

Do you push people around? Do you make people feel like they don't want to live anymore? Do YOU feel the need to go online and harass someone to the point they don't want to come to school? If you identify with any of these statements, congratulations, you are a bully! The only thing is... (Up-beat music transitions into sadder music)

This is not something to be proud of.

If you're a bully who has been bullied, chances are you know how they feel.

Over 3.2 MILLION students are bullied every year, and 17% of kids in America have reported being bullied 2 to 3 times every month. Bullying is the third leading cause of suicide in youths from ages 10-24, resulting in 4400 lives lost every year. IF YOU ARE A BULLY, think about the damage you are causing, how would you feel if you were the reason another human being is too afraid to step outside? Or worse yet, loses the will to live. Could you live with yourself? Stop the hate.
